

Issue No. 1 of 13 January 2017

- The US may soon reinstate retaliatory tariffs relating to a long-standing dispute on the EU's measures concerning meat and meat products
- The CJEU's Advocate General determines that the EU-Singapore Free Trade Agreement has to be concluded jointly by the EU and the EU Member States
- France starts a two-year trial of mandatory COOL – Should the EU take a harmonised approach on COOL?

Issue No. 2 of 27 January 2017

- The US initiates a WTO dispute with Canada concerning the retail sale of wine
- The US files a WTO complaint concerning China's administration of tariff rate quotas for certain agricultural products
- Naming and marketing of plant-based meat substitutes – vegetarian 'Schnitzel' and vegan sausages?

Issue No. 3 of 10 February 2017

- Burdensome, but partly ineffective – Illegal seafood circumventing the EU's IUU fishing rules underlines the need for stronger plurilateral and multilateral engagement
- The US Food and Drug Administration issues its guidance on the non-proprietary naming of biological products
- European Parliament's ENVI Committee votes for restrictions of advertisements for HFSS foods aimed at children, including in social networks

Issue No. 4 of 24 February 2017

- The WTO Agreement on Trade Facilitation enters into force
- A shift in global trade priorities – trade negotiations between the EU and Japan and between the EU and Mexico are to be accelerated
- The complex regulation of maximum levels of acrylamide in food

Issue No. 5 of 10 March 2017

- The WTO Appellate Body issues its Report in Russia – Pigs (EU), in part, adding to the discourse of ‘regionalisation’
- Reforming the EU’s Emission Trading System – the need for a delicate balance between environmental targets and competitiveness
- Undermining the CETA? Canadian concerns about planned country of origin labels for pasta in Italy

Issue No. 6 of 24 March 2017

- Mexico files a request for WTO consultations on Costa Rica’s measures concerning the importation of fresh avocados
- Brexit and the growing legal and economic uncertainties for all stakeholders, in particular in the agro-food sector
- The European Commission report on labelling of alcoholic beverages invites the industry to submit a self-regulatory proposal

Issue No. 7 of 7 April 2017

- The WTO Dispute Settlement Body issues Panel Report in EU – Poultry Meat (China) dispute
- The EU adopts new rules to regulate trade in ‘conflict minerals’
- Is the EU moving towards the labelling of added sugar? The EFSA is to provide an opinion on the intake of sugar added to food

Issue No. 8 of 21 April 2017

- The continued saga surrounding the importation of citrus fruit into the EU from South Africa
- Australia and the EU conclude discussions on the scope of negotiations for a free trade agreement
- Update on COOL: Italian draft decree on the mandatory indication of the address of the production facility; Compliance with Italian and French COOL measures

Issue No. 9 of 5 May 2017

- A WTO arbitrator rules on the level of retaliatory measures that Mexico can pursue in US – Tuna II (Mexico)
- Is the EU-Japan Free Trade Agreement soon to be concluded?
- Fisheries, subsidies and the delicate task of ensuring sustainability and traceability while facilitating trade – An update on discussions within the UN and the WTO
- France recommends to food business operators an additional form of presentation of the front-of-pack nutrition declaration

Issue No. 10 of 19 May 2017

- Recognition of sustainability in tariff nomenclatures: can it work?
- A broad reading of EU competences – the CJEU's unexpected take on the EU-Singapore Free Trade Agreement
- The regulatory framework on plant protection products in the UK after Brexit

Issue No. 11 of 2 June 2017

- Important preferential access to the EU market and incentive for reform: Sri Lanka regains GSP+ beneficiary status
- The European Commission takes action against the Comoros, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and Liberia with respect to illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing
- An update on nutrient profiles: advertising HFSS food to children and an open letter on nutrient profiles for nutrition and health claims

Issue No. 12 of 16 June 2017

- 100 EU Geographical Indications will soon be protected in China, while Italian authorities investigate fraudulent production of protected Parma and San Daniele ham
- The need for crop-based biofuels in the EU's renewable energy framework
- Court of Justice of the European Union: Commission did not err in not authorising health claims that encourage the consumption of sugar

Issue No. 13 of 30 June 2017

- New US Forced Labour Import Ban
- A draft feasibility study signals actions that the EU may take to address deforestation outside its borders, while proposed rules on accounting for the climate impact of forests within its border remain contentious
- Court of Justice of the European Union: Purely plant-based products cannot be marketed as 'milk', 'butter' or 'cheese'

Issue No. 14 of 14 July 2017

- Slowly moving forward in the choppy waters of the negotiations for a WTO agreement addressing fisheries subsidies
- The EU and Japan reach an 'agreement in principle' on their Free Trade Agreement
- Agreement on criteria for endocrine disruptors in the field of plant protection products in the EU

Issue No. 15 of 28 July 2017

- The future of Trade and Sustainable Development Chapters in the EU's Free Trade Agreements – A Commission 'non-paper' fuels the debate
- Time to split? How the EU should approach trade and investment in future agreements
- Consequences of mandatory country of origin labelling (COOL) of food on the EU internal market

Issue No. 16 of 8 September 2017

- Issues appear to remain in Trinidad and Tobago's fishing industry, but improvement efforts are ongoing
- The protection of EU geographical indications in China – 8 EU Member States will pursue legal action against 'counterfeit' trademarks, while a US consortium objects to the EU-China GI Agreement
- Italy adopts mandatory country of origin labelling for durum wheat pasta and rice and intends to adopt similar rules for tomato products – how cool is COOL in trade terms?

Issue No. 17 of 22 September 2017

- Negotiations on a WTO agreement on fisheries subsidies continue to progress
- The EU's 'trade package' – EU trade policy takes centre stage in European Commission President Juncker's State of the Union address
- The debate on 'dual quality' branded food products – an initial legal analysis

Issue No. 18 of 6 October 2017

- A (bitter) sweet future? The EU abolishes its sugar production quotas
- Finland approves insects for food use – but not all insect-based food. Food safety authority to publish guidance
- Towards the regulation of voluntary precautionary allergen labelling in the EU?

Issue No. 19 of 20 October 2017

- 'Brexit' visions - the UK looks into its trade and customs future
- The European Parliament opposes the adoption of the proposed definition of endocrine disruptors in the field of plant protection products
- EU Member States likely to vote soon on the renewal of glyphosate's authorisation, while the European Parliament asks to phase it out

Issue No. 20 of 3 November 2017

- As impatience in Australia grows, the European Parliament calls on the Council of the EU to authorise the start of negotiations with Australia and New Zealand
- The Court of Justice of the EU ruled that an international agreement on Geographical Indications (GIs) falls under the EU's exclusive trade competence
- A growing number of Front-of-Pack (FoP) nutrition labelling schemes underlines the need for global consistency

Issue No. 21 of 17 November 2017

- Another WTO panel report in the US – Tuna II (Mexico) saga appears to bring this dispute closer to an end
- Illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing in South East Asia and the need for concerted and coordinated efforts – Viet Nam receives a ‘yellow card’, while Thailand prepares for an EU delegation
- Defining ‘vegan’ and ‘vegetarian’ food in the EU and ‘consumer preference claims’ at the international level

Issue No. 22 of 1 December 2017

- A more inclusive membership, but potentially limited outcomes? – A preview of the eleventh WTO Ministerial Conference in Buenos Aires
- New organic farming rules in the EU: Current recognition of equivalence by control bodies for imports to be progressively shifted to a compliance regime
- Insects as food and feed – with cricket bread on the market in Finland and insect protein allowed for aquaculture animals, the EU now targets 2019 to allow the use of insect protein in poultry feed

Issue No. 23 of 15 December 2017

- The EU and Japan conclude their negotiations for a Free Trade Agreement
- Italy moves to support its agricultural producers through limiting rice imports into the EU and by extending country of origin labelling – a fine line between legitimate policies and protectionism
- The European Parliament does not veto the authorisation of phosphate additives in ‘frozen vertical meat spits’, better known as ‘kebab’ meat – Call for harmonised labelling of phosphates in take-away foods

FratiniVergano specializes in European and international law, notably WTO and EC trade law, EC agricultural and food law, EC competition and internal market law, EC regulation and public affairs. For more information, please contact us at:

FRATINIVERGANO
EUROPEAN LAWYERS

Rue de Haerne 42, B-1040 Brussels, Belgium Tel.: +32 2 648 21 61 - Fax: +32 2 646 02 70
www.FratiniVergano.eu

Trade Perspectives® is issued with the purpose of informing on new developments in international trade and stimulating reflections on the legal and commercial issues involved. Trade Perspectives® does not constitute legal advice and is not, therefore, intended to be relied on or create any client/lawyer relationship.

To stop receiving Trade Perspectives® or for new recipients to be added to our circulation list, please contact us at:

TradePerspectives@FratiniVergano.eu