

Issue No. 1 of 14 January 2010

- Appellate Body rules in China – Publications on the use of GATT Article XX as a defence outside the GATT
- The EU initials an agreement which ends the banana dispute
- EU Commission, EU Parliament, consumers and food industry divided on changes to EU food labelling rules
- China and the US reach an agreement in relation to the 'famous brands subsidies' dispute

Issue No. 2 of 29 January 2010

- The imposition of quality standards for imported fruits and vegetables
- The WTO established a panel to rule on Philippines – Taxes on distilled spirits
- The future of sustainable packaging
- The European Court of Justice clarifies the definition of 'substantial processing or working'

Issue No. 3 of 12 February 2010

- The EU increases its quantity of out-of-quota sugar exports
- Vietnam requests consultations with US concerning anti-dumping measures on frozen warm-water shrimp
- EU ecolabel: new trade barrier or opportunity for third country operators?
- China requests consultations concerning EU anti-dumping measures on certain footwear from China

Issue No. 4 of 26 February 2010

- The EU Commission proposes a ban on international trade in Atlantic bluefin tuna
- Revised guidance document on EU food law published
- China considers 'Buy China' policy for governmental investment projects

Issue No. 5 of 12 March 2010

- The EU Commission gives the green light to a genetically modified potato
- The US requests the WTO to review India's export subsidies for textile and apparel
- Draft Italian legislation on the use of substances other than vitamins and minerals in food supplements discussed at EU level
- The EU and Singapore launch FTA talks

Issue No. 6 of 26 March 2010

- Brazil issues preliminary list cross-retaliation
- EU Parliamentary Committee votes not to make colour coding compulsory for nutritional labelling
- Australia takes a controversial step backwards over beef imports
- The Court of Justice of the EU rules that minimum retail prices for cigarettes infringe EU law

Issue No. 7 of 9 April 2010

- Subsidiarity principle as new safeguard measure for GMO approvals in EU Member States?
- The EU Commission is considering opening an anti-subsidy investigation on Chinese coated fine paper
- The controversy over the imposition of carbon border taxes
- The US requests the establishment of a WTO panel in the Philippines – Taxes on distilled spirits dispute

Issue No. 8 of 23 April 2010

- Canadian Act on tobacco aimed at youth might constitute a technical barrier to trade

- The US expects increased market access for beef in 2012, while EFSA issues guidance on the submission of data for AMT proposals
- China blocks imports of Argentinean soybean oil
- Export restrictions on certain raw materials are increasingly being imposed by WTO Members

Issue No. 9 of 7 May 2010

- Draft on the Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement made available to the public
- Discussion between Canada and the EU concerning upcoming EU fuel standards
- The European Parliament is exercising its right of scrutiny in relation to the approval of the food additive 'bovine and/or porcine thrombin', also known as 'meat glue'
- Feed-in-tariffs for renewable energy sources and WTO rules

Issue No. 10 of 21 May 2010

- Malaysia contemplates WTO case against the restriction of palm oil on the EU market
- The EU and the US express concerns in relation to Japan's planned postal reform
- Brazil requests WTO consultations with the EU over seizures of generic drugs in transit
- Argentina signals import bans of several foods

Issue No. 11 of 4 June 2010

- Turbulent imports of Indian table grapes into the EU due to public health considerations
- The negotiations on the special safeguard mechanism in the WTO heat up
- ECJ judgment on upper safe levels (USLs) for nutrient in food supplements
- Free trade agreement talks between the EU and the Gulf Cooperation Council were suspended

Issue No. 12 of 18 June 2010

- The EU Commission contemplates the introduction of a standardised EU-wide energy and carbon tax
- The EU Parliament votes on mandatory country-of-origin labelling for certain foodstuffs

- Indonesia requests the establishment of a WTO panel over the US clove cigarette ban
- The EU Commission unveils the first details of plans to fundamentally reform the approval system for GMOs in the EU and its Member States

Issue No. 13 of 2 July 2010

- The EU bans illegal timber and timber products
- EU Parliament's INTA Committee votes on the proposed EU regulation implementing the safeguard clause of the EU-Korea FTA
- EU Commission withdraws proposal for rules on organic wine production
- Brazil and the US agree on a framework for further negotiations in the wake of the cotton dispute

Issue No. 14 of 16 July 2010

- In the light of its new competences, the EU Commission publishes the EU investment package
- Discussions on whether WTO rules should apply to private sector standards in food safety and animal health revive
- Signs of progress in WTO talks on the liberalisation of trade in environmental goods
- The alleged Argentinean ban on food imports was discussed in the WTO Council for Trade in Goods

Issue No. 15 of 30 July 2010

- Parmesan cheese and Parma ham on the menu of the EU-Canada trade talks?
- Ukraine requests WTO consultations against Armenia's measures affecting the importation and internal sale of cigarettes and alcoholic beverages
- The panel report on the apple dispute between Australia and New Zealand will be released soon

Issue No. 16 of 10 September 2010

- The WTO dispute on Chinese export restrictions and the question of natural resources as recently exposed by the WTO Trade Report 2010
- EU General Court grants an injunction in benefit of Canadian industries and Inuit communities to suspend the effects of Regulation (EC) No. 1007/09 on the ban on seal products

- Dairy products and meat from cloned animals and their offspring: novel food or monster food?

Issue No. 17 of 24 September 2010

- Japan requests WTO consultations with Canada on Ontario's feed-in tariff programme
- The EU adopts new approach to GMO cultivation
- Oral statements delivered at the WTO in the US - COOL dispute
- EU Council authorises signature of the EU-South Korea Free Trade Agreement

Issue No. 18 of 8 October 2010

- The WTO panel in the dispute US – Poultry Imports from China issued its report
- The US aims at considering currency undervaluation as a countervailable subsidy
- The EU Commission plans to ban the addition of sugar to fruit juices
- The EU and Malaysia launch FTA talks

Issue No. 19 of 22 October 2010

- Regulations on 'plain packaging' of cigarettes: a case of WTO 'plain inconsistency'?
- EU Commission plans an 'omnibus decision' and reviews the timetable for adoption of the list of permitted health claims made on foods
- Conclusion of the Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations including a compromise on geographical indications
- Canada's policy on renewable energy is questioned in the context of government procurement under the EU-Canada trade talks

Issue No. 20 of 05 November 2010

- EU Parliament approves country-of-origin markings ('Made in') on non-EU goods
- US Trade Representative accepts petition against Chinese policies on green technologies
- EU Commission authorises a number of 'non-Article 13' health claims (concerning reduction of disease risk and children's development and health) and rejects others

- In consideration of technical developments, the EU Commission approves a number of new food additives and new uses for previously-approved food additives

Issue No. 21 of 19 November 2010

- The EU Commission releases its blueprint for an EU trade policy
- Which risk assessments are being used for the establishment of the EU list of permitted flavouring substances?
- The WTO panel issued its report in the dispute Thailand – customs and fiscal measures on cigarettes from the Philippines

Issue No. 22 of 03 December 2010

- The European Court of Justice argues that ‘pure’ chocolate is ‘pure non-sense’
- WTO Members’ notification reveal breaches of the committed levels of agricultural domestic support as new export restrictions are adopted
- The EU bans the chemical Bisphenol A from plastic infant feeding bottles
- The EU Commission revised its preferential rules of origin for products imported under the GSP

Issue No. 23 of 17 December 2010

- US Senate approves bill extending subsidies on biodiesel blends and support measures for biodiesel production
- Formerly ‘generic’ Dresdner Stollen becomes protected geographical indication in the EU
- The EU agrees to amend its customs legislation to settle the WTO dispute with India over the seizure of generic drugs in transit
- The EU Council reached political agreement on a draft regulation on food information to consumers

FratiniVergano specializes in European and international law, notably WTO and EC trade law, EC agricultural and food law, EC competition and internal market law, EC regulation and public affairs. For more information, please contact us at:

FRATINIVERGANO

EUROPEAN LAWYERS

Rue de Haerne 42, B-1040 Brussels, Belgium Tel.: +32 2 648 21 61 - Fax: +32 2 646 02 70
www.FratiniVergano.eu

Trade Perspectives® is issued with the purpose of informing on new developments in international trade and stimulating reflections on the legal and commercial issues involved. Trade Perspectives® does not constitute legal advice and is not, therefore, intended to be relied on or create any client/lawyer relationship.

To stop receiving Trade Perspectives® or for new recipients to be added to our circulation list, please contact us at:

TradePerspectives@FratiniVergano.eu